Bourbon Circuit Court.

The Bourbon Circuit Court was convened yesterday morning with Judge R. L. Stout on the bench and Commonwealth Attorney Robt. Franklin at his post of duty. The new docket is light, but a large number of old equity cases to be tried. The only important Commonwealth case to be tried is that of Dave Smith, colored, on the charge of murder. He beat a colored boy to death with a pitchfork handle, near Hutchison, several months ago.

In his instructions to the grand jury Judge Stout said he had inquired among the officials and that but little would be required of the present grand jury. That Bourbon county was to be congratulated upon its citizenship, the peer of any county in the State. He called attention to the violation of the fish and game laws, and to the breaking of minor offenses, such as gaming, selling liquor to minors, &c.

The following gentlemen compose the grand jury:

J. R. Taylor, foreman, Kelly P. Moore, R. P. Barnett, John Marston, J. S. Roberts, W. M. Redmon, R. P. Dow, Dan Isgrig, Newton Clark, C. F. Diddle, J. H. Wilson.

Public Sale of Stock and Crop.

One of the largest sales of stock, crop and farming implements ever held in Bourbon county will be that of J. A. Howerton's on December 7. Everything that is used on a farm will be sold. Farm is three miles South of Paris. 28-3t

Something They Can All Enjoy.

The whole family can enjoy a leather couch for Christmas. J. T. Clinton sells the best.

The McCurdy Family Resigning.

Richard A. McCurdy, President of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York, has resigned. The date of his resignation depends only on the time required by the Trustees to find his successor.

Quickly following the retirement of President McCurdy, his son, Robt. H. McCurdy, general manager of the Mutual, and his son-in-law, Louis A. Thebaud, the favored general agent for New York, have resigned. Each of these three men have been drawing approximately $150,000 a year in salaries and commissions from the company, besides their indirect profits in financial transactions with Mutual money.

A tentative offer to head the company was made to James B. Forgan, President of the First National Bank, of Chicago, who once was an Equitable Director. His bank is one of the leading financial institutions of the Middle West. Mr. Forgan declined to consider the offer.

Lawson Has Control.

Thomas W. Lawson said Saturday night that he had received so many proxies that his control of both the New York Life Insurance Company and the Mutual Life Insurance Company was absolute.

Mr. Lawson says that Mr. Harman is endeavoring to influence the employees of his railways in the interest of the insurance companies, but that the railway men's labor organizations are with him, and if necessary he will make an issue of the matter. He gives no figures on proxies received.

Commercial Organizations.

Since the recent State Development Convention in Louisville, the Louisville Commercial Club is more strongly imbued than ever with the possibilities awaiting Kentucky. It believes that every community in the State can profit by this awakened interest, but it is as firmly convinced that the profit can be greatly enhanced through an organization of the working forces of the different towns. By working forces is meant the mercantile and industrial lines of the different sections. In brief, the Commercial Club feels that a most desirable way to meet and overcome difficulties confronting a business community lies in the organization of a commercial body. It believes this so strongly that it has appointed a standing committee, whose sole duty it is to assist in the organization of business clubs throughout the State and in reviving bodies which have temporarily lapsed into activity.

Mr. R. A. McDowell, former President of the club, has accepted the chairmanship of this committee, and has appointed as his associates thereon fifteen leading spirits of Louisville's commercial world and ten prominent editors in different parts of Kentucky.

The Louisville Commercial Club has no ax to grind in the step it is taking to organize more commercial bodies in the State. Its board of directors feel such an interest in State development, as was shown in the recent convention in Louisville, that it is willing to expend a large part of its funds in sending representatives to different cities to work up organizations of the kind mentioned.

Any community that desires to take the step indicated will receive from the Louisville Commercial Club a copy of its by-laws and constitution, with suggestions as how to stir up interest in the organization. When the iron is hot enough to be struck, the Commercial Club will send a representative to help mold the body into definite form.

DEATHS.

—Mr. Jack Wilkerson, aged about 78 years, died a few days ago at the County Infirmary. Mr. Wilkerson was a popular clerk at the old Bourbon House in this city way back in the sixties, and a number of our older citizens will regret to hear of the passing away of the genial and generous "Uncle Jack," as he was familiarly called by his friends. He was a brother of the late Mrs. S. E. Tipton, of this city.

—Mrs. Mary Lary, aged about 82 years, died at her home near Clintonville, early yesterday morning. She was the mother of Curtis Lary, of Clintonville, and the late Al. Lary, of this city. She was a most estimable Christian woman and highly esteemed by her neighbors and a large circle of friends. Funeral services will be held this (Tuesday) afternoon, at the Clintonville Christian church, at 2 o'clock.

Bryan Tries to Buy Sacred Japanese Stool.

Japanese newspapers received by the steamer Shawmut criticize W. J. Bryan, now visiting Japan, because of his attempt to purchase the war stool upon which Admiral Togo sat when the Shinto ceremonial in Nyeno Park at Tokio to celebrate the naval triumph took place. The stool, which was used for a similar purpose for centuries, since 1707 has been handed down in the Ogasawara family of Shinto priests, which family alone has authority to conduct such ceremonies.

As told by vernacular Japanese newspapers, William J. Bryan went from Yokohama to attend the ceremony, and asked to be permitted to sit upon a seat of such good omen. No objection was made, but, so the story runs, Mr. Bryan then tried to purchase the heirloom. As it had sanctity in Japanese eyes there was only indignation. The owners replied indignantly that the war stool was not for sale. The Jiji Shimpō says the chair was finally handed over to Mr. Bryan, at his earnest request, after a family consultation of the Ogasawaras.

Learning after leaving Tokio of the special character of the chair, Mr. Bryan returned it to the Mayor of Tokio, with a letter explaining that he had no idea of the stool's exceptional value to the Ogasawara family, and under the circumstances should not think of retaining it. One Tokio paper says Mr. Bryan secured a common chair upon which Admiral Togo sat from a restaurateur of Nyeno Park.
